Women's Equality Day

Thursday, August 24

Celebrating the Power of Women!

When: Thursday, August 24, 2017, 6:00 p.m.

Event details:

6:00 p.m. - Reception & Refreshments

6:30 p.m. - A presentation on the Power of Storytelling, presented by San Mateo County Office of Diversity and Equity's (ODE) storytelling and photo-voice project

8:00 p.m. - A performance of "Airswimming," a play that takes place in England in the 1920s regarding the experience of "two women who were locked up in a hospital for the 'criminally insane' because they had children out of wedlock." The Executive Artistic Director called the play a beautiful, moving story of people "stuck in a hopeless situation and the salvation that is to be found only in friendship." Storytelling plays an important role in the characters' emancipation found in their friendship.

RSVP by Monday, August 21

Reception & Storytelling Presentation $10

Early Bird Tickets available at <http://bit.ly/WEDStorytelling2017>

"Airswimming" Performance $25 Discount Early Bird Tickets available at www.dragonproductions.net with discount code "WCLN" at checkout

Tickets are purchased separately. Prices for both events: $35 Early Bird / $50 at the Door.

SAVE THE DATE! Victorian Days Walking Tour

Saturday, August 26

Local walking tours highlighting the history of San Mateo County will be held in August. The tours are coordinated by the San Mateo County Historical Association, offered free of charge.

Join the South San Francisco Public Library on a tour of historic sites along Grand Avenue. The tour will begin at the Grand Avenue Library, a Carnegie building, with a presentation and refreshments. We will visit the hotel that housed the earliest workers and their families in the booming industrial town, tour the house that served as the first hospital, and other buildings that hold historical memories of early South City.

Grand Avenue is on a slight incline. Free parking behind the library, entrance on Miller Street. RSVP now.

South San Francisco Blood Drive

Monday, September 11

GIVE BLOOD

SAVE LIFE

Donate blood in honor of South San Francisco resident, Vanessa Morales!

Vanessa is an 11 year old 5th grader and SSF resident. At age 7 she was diagnosed with Severe Aplastic Anemia, a blood disease that requires regular blood transfusions. Thankfully, she is in remission due to blood donations. Donate to help others like Vanessa!

To make an appointment, go to redcrossblood.org. Enter sponsor code: SSF or call 1.800.RED.CROSS.

When: Monday, September 11

Time: 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

Where: Municipal Services Building, 33 Arroyo Drive, Council Chambers
